2) The period of the concession of the loans free of interest three years expires on the 30th June 1932. A provision of Rs 10000/- is however made for fruit cultivation loans in the budget 1932-33.

3) In connection with the question of loans to the Mysore Canning and Condiment Factory Ltd. it was suggested that the loans be granted might carry interest at 3½% per annum from the date of advance, but after further discussion it was decided that the question be taken up after the expiry of the present period of concession from the additional grants of Rs 500/- and Rs 3050/- respectively. The Revenue Commissioner has recently stated that a large number of applications are reported to be pending with the Ds of Bangalore, Kolar, Mysore and Tumkur Ds for want of sufficient allotment and has asked for an additional grant of Rs 4000/- for purpose.

It is for consideration whether the loans from 1st July 1932 are to be at 6¼% per annum from advance or the concession of now the first three years after the loans should be continued.
